Case No. CR-21-270-JWD

ALYSSA LYNN TURNER,

Defendant.

PLEA AGREEMENT

PARTIES

This plea agreement is entered into by and between the United States, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Oklahoma and the above-captioned defendant pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

I. THE PLEA

DEFENDANT'S PLEA

The defendant agrees to voluntarily plead guilty to and admits to being guilty of the following charges in the Eastern District of Oklahoma:

Count	Offense	Statute
1	Voluntary Manslaughter	18 U.S.C. §§ 1112, 1151 & 1152

as set forth in the Information. At the time the guilty plea is entered, the defendant shall admit to the Court that the defendant is, in fact, guilty of the offense(s) charged in the Information.

MAXIMUM POSSIBLE IMPRISONMENT AND/OR FINE

The defendant understands that the maximum possible penalty for Voluntary Manslaughter is imprisoned for a period of not more than 15 years, and/or a fine of $250,000.00, a term of supervised release of up to 3 years, to be determined by the Court, and a special assessment in the amount of $100.00. The defendant understands that the Court may impose a fine pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984. The willful failure to pay any fine imposed by the Court, in full, may be considered a breach of this plea agreement. Further, the defendant acknowledges that willful failure to pay the fine may subject the defendant to additional criminal violations and civil penalties pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3611, et seq.

Defendant Initials AT

DISMISSAL

At the time of sentencing on the count set forth above, the United States agrees to move for dismissal of the Superseding Indictment.

FACTUAL BASIS FOR PLEA

The defendant agrees that if this matter were to proceed to trial, the United States could prove the following facts beyond a reasonable doubt, and that these facts accurately represent the defendant's provable offense conduct and specific offense characteristics:

On or about July 2, 2021, in the vicinity of 600 E. Main Street, in Wilburton, Oklahoma, in the Eastern District of Oklahoma, I Alyssa Lynn Turner, a non-Indian, upon a heat of passion and during an argument, did shoot Emmet Carshall, an Indian and a member of the Choctaw Nation, with a firearm, thereby causing his death. This occurred within the bounds of the Choctaw Nation.

The defendant understands that defendant will have to swear under oath to the accuracy of this statement, and if defendant should be called upon to testify about this matter in the future, any inconsistencies in such testimony may subject defendant to additional penalties of perjury which may be enforced by the United States under this agreement.

II. LIMITATIONS OF THE AGREEMENT

NO OTHER CHARGES (TAX CHARGES EXCLUDED)

The United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Oklahoma agrees that it will not bring any other criminal charges against the defendant which are known to the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Oklahoma as of the date of this agreement. However, nothing in this agreement will limit prosecution for criminal tax charges, if any, arising out of such offense(s).

COURT, IRS & OTHERS NOT BOUND

The defendant understands that the Court is not a party to this agreement. Should the Court choose to reject this agreement, the defendant understands the Court is not bound by this agreement nor any recommendations contained herein. Nothing in this agreement shall limit the Internal Revenue Service in its collection of any taxes, interest or penalties due from the defendant arising out of or related in any way to the offenses identified in this agreement. Nothing in this agreement shall bind any other federal, state or local district, jurisdiction or law enforcement agency.

IV. WITHDRAWAL OF PLEA OR BREACH OF AGREEMENT

WITHDRAWAL OF PLEA

The United States and the defendant acknowledge and understand, if the Court does not accept this plea agreement, the Court, pursuant to Rule 11(c)(5) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, will give the defendant an opportunity to withdraw the guilty plea and restore defendant's trial rights. The defendant further understands, if the defendant's trial rights are restored and the defendant is subsequently convicted, the defendant may receive a higher sentence than previously contemplated by this plea agreement.

BREACH OF AGREEMENT

In the event the United States believes the defendant has failed to fulfill any obligations under this agreement, committed any local, state, tribal or federal offense after execution of this agreement or has falsely implicated an innocent person in the commission of a crime, the United States shall, in its discretion, have the options of declaring any provision of this agreement null and void. The defendant and the United States agree that in the event the Court concludes that the defendant has breached this agreement:

- a. the defendant will not be permitted to withdraw any guilty plea(s) tendered under this agreement and agrees not to petition for withdrawal of any guilty plea(s);
- b. the United States will be free to make any recommendations to the Court regarding sentencing in this case;
- c. any evidence or statements made by the defendant during any cooperation phase will be admissible at any trials or sentencings; and
- d. the United States will be free to bring any other charges it has against the defendant.

RE-INSTITUTION OF PROSECUTION

If defendant's guilty plea is rejected, withdrawn, vacated, or reversed at any time, the United States will be free to prosecute the defendant for all charges of which it then has knowledge, and any charges that have been dismissed will be automatically reinstated or may be represented to a grand jury with jurisdiction over the matter. In such event, defendant waives any objections, motions or defenses based upon the Statute of Limitations, Speedy Trial Act, or any constitutional restrictions as to the time of bringing such charges.

V. CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS ACT PROVISIONS

CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS ACT (18 U.S.C. § 3771)

Pursuant to the Crime Victims' Rights Act (18 U.S.C. § 3771) and the regulations promulgated under the Act by the Attorney General of the United States, the defendant understands that a crime victim has the following rights:

- a. The right to be reasonably protected from the accused.
- b. The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any public court proceeding, involving the crime or of any release or escape of the accused.
- c. The right not to be excluded from any such public court proceeding, unless the court, after receiving clear and convincing evidence, determines that

- testimony by the victim would be materially altered if the victim heard other testimony at the proceeding.
- d. The right to be reasonably heard at any public proceeding in the district court involving release, plea or sentencing. The defendant understands that the victim's comments and recommendations may be different than those of the parties to this agreement.
  - e. The reasonable right to confer with the attorney for the Government in the case. The defendant understands that the victim's opinions and recommendations may be different than those presented by the United States.
  - f. The right to full and timely restitution as provided by law, including, but not limited to, restitution for property loss, personal injury or death.
  - g. The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay.
  - h. The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.

The definition of "crime victim" under the Crime Victims' Rights is a person directly and proximately harmed as a result of the commission of a Federal offense. In the case of a crime victim who is under 18 years of age, incompetent, incapacitated, or deceased, the legal guardians of the crime victim or the representatives of the crime victim's estate, family members, or any other persons appointed as suitable by the court, may assume the crime victim's rights. The parties acknowledge the specific sentence or sentencing range may depart from the anticipated advisory guideline calculation for the offense(s) to which the defendant is pleading guilty. In reaching this agreement, the parties have considered various factors including, but not limited to, the events and circumstances leading up to the commission of the offense; judicial economy; and the interests of justice and the legal, factual, and evidentiary issues presented by the case. The parties agree the specific sentence or sentencing range is sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the sentencing factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553(a) for this particular case and this individual defendant.

The defendant expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to obtain a credit report on the defendant. The defendant further agrees to provide waivers, consents or releases requested by the United States Attorney's Office to access records to verify the financial information. The defendant also authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to inspect and copy all financial documents and financial information held by the United State Probation Office.

RESTITUTION INVOLVING OFFENSE OF CONVICTION

The defendant agrees to make full restitution, in full accordance with a schedule to be determined by the Court.
